

Remembrance Day

Remember the times of those who we have lost, Red Rose Poppys grow ^{in the ground} and grow.

Remember the soldiers who have passed during wars,

Those dreadful months of blood and war,

The great world war, one and two.

Remember, oh remember,

the eleventh of November

the poppies that grew on the 11th of November.

